I retired from a career in banking having worked in customer service. After many mergers I retired from Wells Fargo Bank. While raising our 2 sons, I was involved with the PTA and held positions as Vice president and Treasurer.

I also volunteered with the Junior Auxiliary of Easton Hospital where I served on various committees organizing their annual crystal ball. I also volunteered in the hospital gift shop.

I also was a member of the Ocean City Maryland art league where I volunteered as a docent during their annual beach house tour.
