Controller's Report: The Controller has submitted a Bank Reconciliation Review for the month end date: 12/31/2025.

Mr. Jeffrey Glazier stated that he has an Accounts Payable Report, a Weekly Check Review and is for the period of 1/31 to 2/27/26 and this Report just came out today so it is hot off the press. During this period, the number of checks and wires that were reviewed were $487. The total dollar amount was at just shy of $8,200,000. The number of manual checks reviewed was six for about $82,000. He stated our first finding is during the check review, we identified one check for $729.92 that was addressed to a different political entity than Allentown (i.e. it was not our check to pay). He stated that they advised the department, they contacted the vendor, confirmed the invoice was not for Allentown and the check was voided. They recalculated another departments payment sheet and identified one payment for $80 that did not agree with our calculation. The re-calculated amount was $40 and the check was voided and reissued in the correct amount. He stated that we know a petty cash reimbursement weakness, he stated ideally, petty cash be replenished very quickly. In this instance, some of the invoices were from 2024 and he is just getting around being reimbursed in 2026. The department was advised, the best practices to replenish petty cash within three months of the expenditure and it most certainly within the same fiscal year is also reiterated. The department acknowledged the advice to subscribe to do better. He stated that we don't handle a whole lot of petty cash these days. He stated since the introduction of P Cards maybe they can see six, seven or eight reimbursements in the course of the year and he thinks that is pretty much a good thing. P Cards really makes things much more efficient. There were eight invoices that had the incorrect expense account used. The departments were advised of the issue and enter journal entry corrections. There were 19 invoices where they deemed them to be an untimely payment or that we need more than 60 days. The departments were advised and advised the reasons for the time lag and moved forward from there. They had four invoices and the documentation was not attached in Munis. The departments were advised, the documentation was attached and the department was able to complete its review. He stated that is my Report, sir.

Mr. Santo Napoli thanked Mayor Tuerk and the Controller, Mr. Glazier. He stated moving along, Mayor Tuerk you had mentioned you had a Report.

Mayor: The mayor has not submitted anything.

Mayor Matt Tuerk stated that he doesn't have a written Report to submit, but he likes to share some thoughts with you if that is ok. He stated 1, welcoming to Read Across America Week in Allentown. He is going to start off on an incredible positive note. Read Across America Week is always the first week in March. There are opportunities for you as City Council people to read to Allentown School kids. He stated that he thinks it is still an opportunity this week to go to any of the Allentown School Districts elementary schools. It does two things, one for you it is an incredibly life affirming moment to sit down and read to second graders who are just like the vibrancy of the city of Allentown. It would be a great way for you to start your day. It makes you feel incredibly good, but it is also really important for young people. He stated when they have an opportunity to see an elected official, like a City Councilperson because it gives something to talk about. It makes them feel seen and that is one of the most important things we can do for young people in Allentown in 2026 is recognize that they are there and they care about them. He stated that he encouraged them to do that. He stated that he thinks it is still time this week and we can connect directly with the Allentown School District. He stated that they also take readers any much week in the year. Don't just do it during Read Across America Week, reach out and make yourself available. The kids will deeply appreciate hearing from their City Councilperson. He stated depending on the grade level they have really interesting questions for you. Second graders are probably going to ask about your favorite color, but the fifth graders will show up and want to know what you are doing to help people in Allentown. He stated if you are ready for a range of good questions. He wants to give a brief trip Report o the meeting on the 18th. He stated that he told them a little about initiatives that they had underway here in the city of Allentown to make the city a better workplace. He stated that was coming off his trip to Los Angeles for the US Conference of Mayors Leadership meeting. He stated during that meeting he was able to do two things he wanted to share with you. 1. He shared Children Health and Human Services for the Conference. They advocate for federal support through cities like Allentown related to the Children Health and Human Services. He wants to give them a sense of what they face right now. He is not asking for political advocacy, but wants them to understand that there are significant impacts facing the City of Allentown as a result of likely cuts to federal funding or changes to federal funding. The two that were significantly on his radar were the elimination of the ACA subsidies which will leave people in Allentown and the city's across America uninsured or having to have to make choices about whether to purchase health insurance or pay other significant bills or essential bills. The impact that has on city's is when people go uninsured, it hits our emergency medical services. The normal doctor's visit shows up in an ambulance for us. It is something that they must be aware of and he urged them to your legislators and at least let them know how important healthcare is to the residents that we serve. The other one is of note now is related to the SNAP benefits and the administration of SNAP. He stated that the big, beautiful bill, HR1 passed in July 2025. It will change the way that states are sharing costs related to SNAP Benefits. It is going to push a significant burden to states. He stated that will result in likely in the reduction in SNAP benefits being made to residents and cities like Allentown and food as you well for anybody who is going grocery shopping, the increase in the cost of food has a significant impact on families budget and facing food insecurities impacts a person's ability to fully participate in the life of the city so those are two of the issues that he will particular focused on at that leadership meeting. They also received a Report on the Road to Housing Bill in the Senate. The House of Representatives Housing Bill where they have two Bills that are passed at are to go out for the creation of production of more affordable housing in a city like Allentown. There is a reconciliation that needs to occur between clean the House and the Senate pass. There are Bills and the city is supportive of anything that will help us build more housing units. He stated you will know when you talk to residents in the city. This is one of the most significant issues that we face in the city is the creation of more affordable housing so there are positive notes that there is progress being made. He stated that he was able to receive a Report. He stated that another thing quickly, that trip to Los Angeles and the thing is having a leadership role with the Conference of Mayors provides to the city of Allentown is access. They were invited to join a workshop on AI in local government posted by Google. He stated that he is still putting thoughts together related to that, but there are and if you have not seen a City Council people impact on AI on the way that you serve our residents. He stated that you likely will or already seeing it and you just don't realize it yet. He stated that people are turning to AI in lots of different ways to help them better understand how to operate in the city and they need to be aware of that. He stated that he will be looking forward to working with City Council over the next few months. He may be asking them to develop legislation on how they can regulate ways they use AI as a city. He is asking them if nothing else to at least start thinking about how AI will affect our residents and taking steps that they can take. He stated final thing, he just wants to end on a note of partnerships over the past couple of weeks. He stated that he was lucky enough to attend a roundtable hosted by St. Luke's with Attorney General, Dave Sunday where they talked about the impact and things that they can do to improve access to mental health and reduce the impact on their criminal justice system. Later, he was able to attend the State of the County Address by new County Executive Siegel. They are going to see him tomorrow. He was happy to see Council represented at the State of the County Address and heard some encouraging things from Executive Siegel on ways that they can collaborate to meet the needs of our residents. He was also happy to see and stated that this is still developing, but this is a during a meeting with President Judge Reichley. They also had Council Representation and were able to talk about things that they might be able to do to assist residents in the city of Allentown as they try to navigate life. The point being that we have new faces in leadership roles and partner organizations and they are showing up and interested in assisting the city of Allentown. He stated that he is glad to see Council at the table for that and looking forward to continuing those partnership opportunities alongside you so those are the thoughts that he had and appreciates the opportunity to share and he is happy to answer any questions.

Mr. Santo Napoli thanked Mayor Tuerk and stated that we are going to move along to Ordinances for Final Passage.

There is still an opportunity and stated that he makes the pitch every time. He stated that if you know particularly a land use attorney, this is one of the major deficiencies of our Planning Commission right now. He stated we have engineers, architects, planners with one deficiency is that we do not have anybody with legal experience in land development who is sitting on the Planning Commission. It is a great to have. He stated that we are ok without it. Mr. Santo Napoli asked if there were any questions or comments from his colleagues.

Mr. Jeremy Binder stated that though he has no financial conflict of interest with this, it would be inappropriate for him to vote on it given the fact that he is related to the appointee so he stated that he will be recusing himself.

Mr. Santo Napoli stated ok, thank you.

Mr. Michael Hanlon stated and you have a person who would like to speak, Ms. Betty Cauler.

Mr. Santo Napoli stated ok. He stated to Ms. Cauler good evening and asked for the full name for the record.

Ms. Betty Cauler stated I'm sorry.

Mr. Santo Napoli stated full name for the record, please.

Ms. Betty Estelle Cauler, 2212 W Tilghman Street - Allentown, PA 18104, stated that she is speaking on this because appointing an Allentown City Council member's spouse to a Housing Board likely presents a conflict of interest or an appearance of impropriety under Pennsylvania's Ethics Act as it involves a familiar relationship and potential contract or policy decisions. Also, the Allentown Code of Ethics dictates that no official shall participate in decisions affecting themselves or an associate which could include a spouse's appointed position. Even if there are no direct financial gain is immediate, the situation creates an appearance of a conflict which violates the ethical standards for public trust. Since Council Binder was stumping with the mayor before last year's election, this appears to be quid pro quo. She stated as such she would ask them all to vote no on this appointment to avoid the appearance of impropriety and to maintain the integrity of the public trust. Thank you.

Mr. Santo Napoli stated ok. He asked if there were any other questions or comments from the public on R32.

Mr. Michael Hanlon stated you have Mary Tomlinson.

Ms. Mary Tomlinson, 373 Liberty Street, stated very close to the Jordan Creek where a massive eviction of people from their homes and it happened last year. She stated that she supports Bill 21 in an effort to structure future evictions adequately. She stated that Riley from the Conference of Churches and Christina from the Homeless Commission reported to y'all a few weeks ago about the eviction that happened and how traumatic it was for folks and it was difficult for our whole community in fact. The surrounding communities have established protocols including lots of collaborations and intensive support for the unhoused who needed to be evicted, but compassionate protocols that is required by our city is needed. Warming stations will be closing and the encampments will be growing. She stated that she hopes they all take into consideration this need in our city. Thank you.
