

AHRC Investigation Report for 2021

The Allentown Human Relations Commission had a total number of 1 fully investigative case, Housing. This case was fully investigated, remedied, and closed. No cases for 2021 are currently pending.

Our tracking data consisted of 34 different cases within the year of 2021. These cases of discrimination allegations did not require/result in a full-blown investigative process but were remedied.

These discrimination allegations (area of complaint) consisted of:

Landlord/Tenant Issues, Eviction, Housing, Employment, Harassment, Neighborhood Conflicts, Public Accommodation, Noise Disturbance, Hazard Conditions/Relocation, Retaliation, Disability, Race/Color, and LGBTQ

Human Relation Commission Investigator

Ciera Villalobos