~~(6)~~ Effective January 1, 1997, every covered employee regardless of date of hire shall pay into the Police Pension Fund the amount of 8% of base pay, longevity, holiday pay, shift differential, and overtime, but not including any monies received for off duty employment pursuant to Chapter 5, Administration of Government, Article VIII, Department of Police, of the Code of the City of Allentown. One percent of the 8% shall be applied to disability. [Amended 6-19-1997 by Ord. No. 13584]

(2) Pension Funding: Effective January 1, 2005, Every covered employee, regardless of date of hire, shall pay into the Police Pension Fund the amount of 5% of the Covered Employee's salary base pay,

~~longevity, holiday pay, overtime and shift differential.~~ [Amended 7-21-2005 by Ord. No. 14300]

- (3) Disability Funding: Every covered Employee regardless of date of hire shall pay into the Police Pension Fund additional amount of one (1%) percent of salary which shall be used to fund disability pension benefits.

~~D. C.~~ Council appropriations. There shall be appropriated by the City annually to the Police Pension Fund Association for the purpose of the Fund such amount as Council may consider proper or expedient within the limitation fixed by law.

~~E. D.~~ No benefit increases/actuarial study required. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, there shall be no future increases in any benefits of any officers or employees in such Pension Fund, except as already provided, until an actuarial study is made to determine the increased burden of such increased benefits on the Pension Fund and Council shall be obligated to provide for such funds as are necessary to equal such increased burden on the Pension Fund. [Amended 4-20-1977 by Ord. No. 12248]

§ 75-37 Annual actuarial study.
[Amended 12-17-1986 by Ord. No. 12748; 3-6-2008 by Ord. No. 14571]

~~Commencing in 2009,~~ An actuarial study shall be done every year and made public no later than 90 days prior to the ensuing fiscal year. The cost of the annual actuarial study shall be paid by the Police Pension Fund Association.

§ 75-38 Association powers and meetings.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

The Police Pension Fund Association herein provided for shall keep full and accurate accounts of all transactions, shall have full power to make rules for such transactions, and shall have full power to make rules for the transaction of its business, the application and investment of its funds by the corporate trustee, and its time and place of meeting. It shall meet at least four (4) times in each year (special meetings upon the call of the President of the Association).

§ 75-39 Annual financial statement.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

It shall be the duty of the Police Pension Fund Association, each year at the time of making up the general appropriation ordinances, with the assistance of the corporate trustee, to prepare a full and detailed statement of the assets of the Fund and the amount which it is required to pay and to present the same to Council together with a statement of the amount of money required to enable the Association to pay the pensions and service increments in full, together with refunds.

§ 75-40 Resolution and orders by vote.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

No resolution shall be passed or order made for payment of money unless by affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Police Pension Fund Association. Upon all questions of fact relating to the Administration of the Fund, such resolution or order shall be conclusive.

§ 75-41 Payment certificates.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

The Police Pension Fund Association shall issue certificates signed by its President and Secretary to the officer or employee entitled to retirement and pension and also service increment under the provisions of this article, for the amount of money ordered paid to such officer or employee out of the Police Pension Fund, which certificate shall state for what purpose payment is made.

§ 75-42 Ineligibility for nonpayment.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

No officer or employee shall be entitled to a pension and/or a service increment and/or a refund who does not make the payments herein required.

§ 75-43 Salary for pension purposes.

A. Effective January 1, 1997, wherever, "salary" is used in this Ordinance to define benefits and pension funding, it shall include base pay, longevity, holiday pay, shift differential, and overtime, but not including any monies received for off-duty employment pursuant to ~~Article VIII §5-41 Section 135.03~~, of the Codified Ordinances, of the City of Allentown. For pension calculation purposes, overtime shall be the individual officer's average overtime compensation during the last three (3) years of employment prior to the effective date of retirement. Effective January 1, 2005, the basis of the amount of the pension shall be determined by the rate of the monthly pay of the employee at the time of retirement, or the highest average annual salary which the Covered Employee received during any five (5) years of service preceding retirement, whichever is higher. During the final thirty (30) days of employment, a retiring employee shall not artificially contrive or manipulate his regular or overtime hours so as to increase the rate of pension to which he would otherwise be entitled.

When the Covered Employee submits his/her letter of retirement to the City, the City shall provide the employee with an itemized list of salary for each and all years of service. ~~Salary will include base pay, longevity, holiday pay, shift differential and overtime, but not to include any monies received for off duty employment pursuant to 136.03 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of Allentown.~~ The definition of "the rate of the monthly payment" contained in this provision shall be a period of thirty (30) calendar days counting backwards from the day of retirement. ~~All monies~~ The salary earned within that thirty (30) day period shall be counted for the purposes of calculation of pension, including compensatory time earned within the last thirty (30) days of employment. (13584 §3 6/19/97; 14300 §1 7/21/05)

B. Effective January 1, 2009, for purposes of calculating the pensions of officers retiring after December 31, 2008, the maximum amount of overtime compensation to be included in such calculation for any retiree opting for a pension based on his/her final 30 days compensation (which shall be based upon the period of thirty (30) calendar days counting backwards from the day of retirement) shall be no greater than ten (10%) percent of the officer's base pay compensation for that 30 day period. By way of example, if an officer's base pay compensation for that 30 day period is $4000, the maximum allowable overtime credit would be $400. (14680 §1 1/22/09)

§ 75-44 Retirement period and age.

[Amended 1-4-1972 by Ord. No. 11919; 11-14-1989 by Ord. No. 12931; 6-22-2000 by Ord. No. 13846]

Effective August 23, 1999, every covered employee may make application to retire after 20 years of continuous service and shall be eligible to collect a pension. There is no minimum age for retirement.

§ 75-45 Amount of pension.

[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857; 11-14-1989 by Ord. No. 12931; 12-22-1994 by Ord. No. 13312; 6-22-2000 by Ord. No. 13846]

Effective August 23, 1999, every covered employee who has served for a period of at least 20 years of continuous service, regardless of age, shall be permitted to retire and receive a pension at the rate of 50.5% of his/her salary on the date of retirement.

§ 75-46 (Reserved)

~~§ 75-46 Retirement prior to January 1, 1990.~~

~~[Amended 10-18-1989 by Ord. No. 12929]~~

~~Every covered employee who retired before January 1, 1990, shall make pension contributions until he/she has reached the age of 50. Such pension contributions shall be determined by the annual salary the covered employee would have received if he/she had continued in City service at the same rank which he/she held at the time he/she left City employment. After such pension contributions have been made, he/she shall be entitled to collect a pension at age 50 at a rate of 1/2 of the annual salary he/she would have received if he/she had continued in City service at the same rank which he/she held at the time he/she left City employment. In addition, service increments shall be paid to entitled employees at the rate of 1/40 of their pension allowance for each whole year of service beyond 20 but prior to reaching the age of 65. Such service increments shall not exceed $100 per month. This section shall be retroactive to include all police personnel who retired prior to the enactment of this article.~~

§ 75-47 Service increment computation.

- A. ~~Every covered employee with at least 21 years of continuous active service shall receive service increments for each full year of service beginning with the 21st up to and including the 25th year of continuous service at the rate of an additional 2 1/4% (0.0225) per year of the annual salary. The maximum number of service increments shall be five. However, every covered employee retiring with at least 22 but fewer than 23 years of continuous service shall receive credit for 2 1/2 service increments. [Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857; 11-14-1989 by Ord. No. 12931]~~
- B. ~~Every covered employee who retires on or after January 1, 1995, with at least 21 years of continuous active service shall receive service increments for each full year of service beginning with the 21st up to and including the 25th year of continuous service at the rate of an additional 3% per year of the annual salary for the first service increment year and at the rate of 3.5% per year of the annual salary for each of the four subsequent service increments. The maximum number of service increments shall~~

~~be five. However, every covered employee retiring with at least 22 but fewer than 23 years of continuous service shall receive credit for 2 1/2 service increments. [Amended 12-22-1994 by Ord. No. 13312]~~

~~C. Every covered employee who retires on or after January 1, 1996, with at least 21 years of continuous active service shall receive increments for each full year of service beginning with the 21st up to and including the 25th year of continuous service at the rate of an additional 3.5% of the annual salary for the first service increment year and at the rate of 4% per year of the annual salary for each of the four subsequent service increments. The maximum number of service increments shall be five. However, every covered employee retiring with at least 22 but fewer than 23 years of continuous service shall receive credit for 2 1/2 service increments. [Amended 6-19-1997 by Ord. No. 13584]~~

~~A. D. Effective January 1, 2005, For officer hired before January 1, 2009 the total of pension and service increments shall represent the following percentages of salary: [Amended 7-21-2005 by Ord. No. 14300]~~

- ~~(1) 21 years of service: 58%.~~
- ~~(2) 22 years of service: 61%.~~
- ~~(3) 23 years of service: 64%.~~
- ~~(4) 24 years of service: 67%.~~
- ~~(5) 25 years of service: 70%.~~

~~B. E. Effective January 1, 2009, Officers hired on or after January 1, 2009 thereafter shall be entitled to a pension calculated in conformity with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Third Class City Code. Specifically, new officers hired after January 1, 2009, shall be eligible only for service increments calculated in accordance with the formula provided under § 14303(b)(1) of the Third Class City Code. [Amended 1-22-2009 by Ord. No. 14680]~~

§ 75-48 Cost of Living Adjustment.
[Amended 7-21-2005 by Ord. No. 14300]

Effective January 1, 2005, any covered employee retiring after January 1, 2005, shall receive an annual cost of living adjustment. Such increases shall be in conformity with a uniform scale, which may be based on the cost of living, but that the total of any such allowances received by said covered employee, shall not, at any time, exceed 1/2 of the current salary being paid patrolmen/women of the highest bargaining unit pay grade. The cost-of-living adjustment shall conform to the Federal Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W).

§ 75-49 (Reserved)

~~§ 75-49 Credit for CETA service.
[Amended 6-20-1994 by Ord. No. 13267]~~

~~Every current member of the Police or Paid Firemen's Pension Fund who served as a City of Allentown CETA police officer or firefighter between 1977 and 1980 and who was not a member of the Police Pension Fund during such service shall be entitled to have full credit for each year or fraction thereof of such Allentown CETA service upon payment to the Police Pension Fund of an amount equal to that which he/she would have paid if he/she had been a member of the Police Pension Fund during the period of Allentown CETA service. All purchased Allentown CETA service shall be credited as "active service" for pension purposes.~~

§ 75-50 Credit for Police Cadet and/or Para Police service.

Every current member of the Police Pension Fund who served as a City of Allentown Police "Cadet" or "Para Police" Officer prior to their appointment as a police officer shall be entitled to have full credit for each year or fraction thereof, not to exceed four years of such service, upon payment to the Police Pension Fund of an amount equal to that which they would have paid had they been a member of the Police Pension Fund during the period of Allentown "Cadet" or "Para Police" service. All purchased Allentown "Cadet" or "Para Police" service shall be credited as "active service" for pension purposes.

§ 75-51 Vesting.

~~A. Effective January 1, 1996, every covered employee shall be vested in their prorated pension after 12 years of continuous service. Where an employee shall have served 12 years or more and shall not have attained the age of 50 years, and their tenure of employment shall be terminated, with or without their voluntary action, upon attaining the age of 50 years, the employee shall be entitled to receive such portion of their full pension compensation, based on their wages when termination occurred, as the period of their full years of service, up to date of termination, bears to the full twenty-year period of service. [Amended 6-19-1997 by Ord. No. 13584]~~

~~B. Effective January 1, 1999, Every covered employee shall be vested in their prorated pension after 12 years of credited service. Where an employee shall have served 12 years or more and their tenure of employment shall be terminated with or without their voluntary action, the employee shall be entitled to receive upon the date when they would have achieved 20 years of service, such portion of their full pension compensation, based on their wages when termination occurred, as the period of their full years of service, up to the date of termination, bears to the full twenty-year period of service. Pension benefits shall be payable when the terminated and vested employee shall have reached the date when he/she would have achieved 20 years of service. [Amended 6-22-2000 by Ord. No. 13846]~~

§ 75-52 (Reserved)

§ 75-53 (Reserved for any future deferred retirement option plans)

~~§ 75-53 One-time deferred retirement option plan.~~
~~[Amended 1-22-2009 by Ord. No. 14680]~~

- ~~A. The City shall provide, on a one-time basis, a self-directed Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP), with no guaranteed rate of return on DROP accounts, for officers who are eligible to retire on or before December 31, 2008. The award of the one-time DROP is contingent upon the receipt of an actuarial cost estimate showing the impact of the DROP on the future financial requirements of the pension plan, and the future minimum obligation of the City with respect to the pension plan, and a statement that provision of the DROP shall not affect the actuarial soundness of the pension plan.~~
- ~~B. Any current officer who was eligible to retire on or before December 31, 2008, may elect to retire under the provisions of the one-time Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP) as set forth herein. The election to participate in the DROP must be made no later than January 5, 2009.~~
- ~~C. An officer electing to enter the DROP shall have his or her pension benefit calculated using the service and salary as if the officer had elected to retire at a date on or after November 20, 2008, but no later than December 31, 2008.~~
- ~~D. Upon entering the DROP, the officer shall continue employment for a period of no more than five years from the date of retirement as elected herein, after which time, the separation of employment shall be mandatory. Once entered into the DROP, the officer will not receive any service credit or service increments for the time he/she remains employed. Likewise, there will be no employee contribution into the Fund for the time he/she remains employed. Electing to enter the DROP is irrevocable.~~
- ~~E. There is no guarantee of interest or earnings on monies placed into any financial investment vehicle on behalf of and as directed by the officer. There shall be no interest charged to the Fund on any monies paid into a financial investment under the DROP.~~

§ 75-54 (Reserved)

~~§ 75-54 Years of employment as basis for service increment.~~
~~[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]~~

~~Officers or employees who are contributors to the Police Pension Fund who, on or before January 1, 1952, reached the age of 65 years, shall have their service increment computed on the years of employment prior to the date of reaching their 65th birthday.~~

~~§ 75-55 Benefits for surviving spouse or dependent children.~~
~~[Amended 12-7-1983 by Ord. No. 12580]~~

- ~~A. Death in the line of duty.~~
- ~~(1) If any police officer while in the actual performance of his or her duty is killed or so injured that he or she dies from the effects thereof, his or her surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive a pension~~

~~equivalent to 1/2 the salary received by the officer at the time of death, and any service increment the officer may have been entitled to at the time of death. If such death occurs on or after January 1, 1995, such pension shall be equivalent to 50 1/2% of such salary and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to at the time of death. [Amended 12-22-1994 by Ord. No. 13312]~~

- (2) ~~Effective January 1, 2009, such pension shall be equivalent to 62.5% of the officer's salary at the time of death or 50 1/2% of such salary and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to at the time of death, whichever is higher. [Amended 1-22-2009 by Ord. No. 14680]~~
- (3) In case there is no surviving spouse, or after the death of the surviving spouse, or in case of the surviving spouse's ~~her or his~~ remarriage, the pension and service increment shall be paid to the guardian of the deceased officer's dependent children, if any, without abatement until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years, after which all pension and service increment rights shall cease, with the exception that after the last child has reached the age of 18 years, then the surviving spouse who has since remarried, at this time will once again have his or her pension rights as a surviving spouse reinstated for the remainder of his or her life.
- (4) No surviving spouse who has for one year or upwards previous to the death of the police officer, willfully or maliciously deserted the police officer shall have the right to claim any pension or service increment under the provisions of this article.

B. Death of pensioner.

- (1) The surviving spouse of a retired police officer, including current retired police officers retired prior to 1969, shall be entitled to receive the same pension as was paid to the retired police officer. In case there is no surviving spouse, or after the death of the surviving spouse or in the case of her or his remarriage, the pension shall be paid to the guardian of the deceased officer's dependent children, if any, without abatement until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years, after which all pension and service increment rights of the guardian shall cease, with the exception that after the last child has reached the age of 18 years, then the surviving spouse who has since remarried, at this time will once again have his or her pension rights as a surviving spouse reinstated for the remainder of his or her life. [Amended 4-17-1997 by Ord. No. 13570]
- (2) No surviving spouse, who has, for one year or upwards previous to the death of the police officer, willfully or maliciously deserted the police officer, shall have the right to claim any pension or service increment under the provisions of this article.

C. Death after 10 years on police force.

- (1) If a member of the police force served more than 10 years, his or her surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive a pension equivalent to 1/2 of the salary received by the officer at the time of death, and any service increment the officer may have been entitled to at the time of death. In case there is no surviving spouse, or after the death of the surviving spouse, or in the case of her or his remarriage, the pension and service increment shall be paid to the guardian of the deceased officer's dependent children, if any, without abatement until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years, after which all pension and service increment rights of the guardian shall cease, with the exception that after the last child has reached the age of 18 years, then the surviving spouse who has since remarried, at this time will once again have his or her pension rights as a surviving spouse reinstated for the remainder of his or her life.

(2) If such death occurs on or after January 1, 1995, such pension shall be equivalent to 50 1/2% of such salary and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to at the time of death. [Amended 12-22-1994 by Ord. No. 13312]

(3) No surviving spouse who has, for one year or upwards previous to the death of the police officer, willfully or maliciously deserted the police officer, shall have the right to claim any pension or service increment under the provisions of this article.

D. Death before 10 years on police force.

(1) The surviving spouse of a member of the police force which member had 10 or less years of service in the Police Bureau shall be entitled to receive a pension equivalent to 1/2 the pension which the deceased police officer would have received had he or she been retired at the time of his or her death. In case there is no surviving spouse, or in the case of her or his remarriage, the pension shall be paid to the guardian of the deceased police officer's dependent children, if any, without abatement until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years, after which all pension rights shall cease, with the exception that after the last child has reached the age of 18 years, then the surviving spouse who has since remarried, at this time will once again have his or her pension rights as a surviving spouse reinstated for the remainder of his or her life.

(2) No surviving spouse who has for one year or upwards previous to the death of the police officer, willfully or maliciously deserted the police officer shall have the right to claim any pension or service increment under the provisions of this article.

E. Application. The benefits for the surviving spouse or dependent children set forth in Subsections A, C and D hereof shall apply to the surviving spouses of City police officers who died after December 16, 1969. The benefits for the surviving spouse or dependent children of a retired police officer which are set forth in Subsection B hereof shall apply to police officers who retired after December 16, 1969. Effective June 1, 1998, surviving spouses of police officers who retired prior to December 16, 1969, shall prospectively receive a pension equivalent to the pension the deceased officer received.

[Amended 4-23-1998 by Ord. No. 13662]

- F. On or after January 1, 1984, all current active employees in the fund, all current retirees in the fund, and all surviving spouses of deceased retirees in the fund who have not remarried since their spouse's death, shall be covered by this amendment that permits the surviving spouse of fund retirees to remarry without the loss of his or her survivor's pension benefits, except as limited in Subsections A, B, C, and D above.

§ 75-56 Credit for military service.

[Amended 6-13-1973 by Ord. No. 12016; 11-14-1989 by Ord. No. 12931; 3-5-1998 by Ord. No. 13651]

Every covered employee who served in the Armed Forces of the United States subsequent to September 1, 1940, and who was not a member of the covered Police Department prior to such military service, shall be entitled to have full credit for each year or fraction thereof, not to exceed five years of such service, upon his/her payment to the Police Pension Fund of an amount equal to that which he/she would have paid had he/she been a member during the period for which he/she desires credit, and his/her payment to such fund of an additional amount as the equivalent of the contributions of the City of Allentown on account of such military service. All purchased military time shall be credited as "active service" for pension purchases. Any retired member who retired prior to June 13, 1973 and would otherwise qualify for this credit may purchase such credits to be applied prospectively from the effective date of this article (passed on March 5, 1998, becoming effective April 5, 1998) and according to the Police Pension Fund benefit plan, in effect, at the date such member retired.

§ 75-57 Retirement for disability.

[Amended 11-7-1979 by Ord. No. 12388; 4-9-2011 by Ord. No. 14883]

- A. The Police Pension Fund Association shall have the right, on application received, to retire on pension any officer or employee accepting the provisions of this article, if in its opinion and in the opinion of a maximum of two (2) reputable physicians who have been selected by the Association, who shall make a physical examination and file their opinion in writing with the Association (whose fees shall be paid by the Association ~~the officer or employee asking to be retired~~) that such officer is totally disabled, through injury received or disease contracted in the actual performance of duty and by reason of the performance of such duty and without fault ~~of~~ or misconduct on their part, rendering the officer unable to perform his duties in the Bureau of Police. However, the Association shall have the authority to order another examination at the expiration of six (6) months from the date of retirement or thereafter, and if the disability of the pensioner is found to have been removed, the Association shall terminate the pension and they shall be reinstated as an active member of the Bureau.
- B. As used in the section, "totally disabled" shall mean permanent mental or physical impairment which renders the police officer unable to perform his duties.

§ 75-58 Reinstatement after disability.

[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857; 4-9-2011 by Ord. No. 14883]

Any officer or employee who is retired under the provisions of § 75-57 on account of physical or mental incapacity may (upon his application) be reinstated by the Association as an active member of the Police Bureau with the same rank and rating which they had upon retirement, if upon satisfactory proof presented to the Association, it shall determine that such incapacity has been removed and the applicant is physically and mentally fit for duty in such position and rank; provided, however, that the applicant shall, if reinstated, file with the Association a release, duly executed and acknowledged, of any right or claim to the pension during the period which they shall serve after such retirement.

§ 75-59 Pension for disability retirement in the line of duty.

- A. Every officer or employee of the Bureau of Police retired under the provisions of § 75-57 shall be deemed to be fully vested in the police pension fund, regardless of the actual number of years of credited service and shall be entitled to a pension of 50.5% of such salary as set forth in § 75-45 herein and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to as set forth in § 75-47 herein at the time of total disability, which shall be calculated in accordance with § 75-43 herein.
- B. The police pension fund shall be subrogated to the right of the claimant to the extent of any payments made under the Act of June 2, 1915 (P.L. 736, No. 338), known as "The Pennsylvania ~~Workmen's~~ Workers' Compensation Act," or the Act of June 28, 1935 (P.L. 477, No. 193), referred to as the "Enforcement Officer Disability Benefits Law."

§ 75-60 Pension for disability retirement not in the line of duty.

- A. Any police officer who has less than 10 years of service and who is totally disabled due to injuries or mental incapacities not in the line of duty and is unable to perform the duties of a police officer, shall be entitled to a pension of 25% of his or her annual compensation. For injuries received after 10 years of service, such pension shall be equivalent to 50 %of such salary and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to at the time of retirement. The disability pension set forth above shall be payable to the police officer's widow or widower if she or he survives. If this surviving spouse subsequently dies or remarries, the pension shall be payable to the police officer's child or children under the age of 18 years.

~~§ 75-60 Basis of pension amount; increase.~~

[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857; 12-22-1994 by Ord. No. 13312]

~~The basis of the pension of a member shall be determined by the monthly salary of the member at the date of retirement or the highest average annual salary which he received during any five years of service preceding retirement, whichever is the higher, whether for disability or by reason of age or service and, except as to service increments provided for in this article, shall be 1/2 the annual salary of such member at~~

~~the time of retirement computed as such monthly or average annual rate, whichever is the higher. After January 4, 1971, the provisions of §§ 75-44, 75-56 and 75-57 shall be administered in accordance with this section. On or after January 1, 1995, such pension shall be equivalent to 50 1/2% of such salary and any service increment in effect on that date which the officer may have been entitled to at the time the pension begins.~~

§ 75-61 Suspension; leave of absence.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

Suspension from duty, other than as herein described or leave of absence under one year, shall not affect the period of continuous service in any event.

§ 75-62 Acceptance of provisions.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

The provisions of this article shall apply to all regular sworn salaried officers ~~and employees~~ of the Bureau of Police excepting the janitor or similar employee, who shall have accepted the provisions of this article, but it shall be optional with each office and employee as to whether or not he or she accepts the provisions of this article, his or her acceptance to be signified by his or her signing the Police Pension Fund Roll, which shall be kept by the Secretary of the Association, and which Police Pension Fund Roll shall show conclusively the date upon which such member accepted the provisions of this article, as well as the date upon which he or she was appointed a regular salaried officer or employee of the Bureau and that he or she has been in continuous service to the date of his or her acceptance.

§ 75-63 Signatures required.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

~~It shall be the duty of the Secretary to obtain the signature of those who may elect the provisions of this Article.~~

§ 75-64 Notice of enactment; acceptance period.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

~~It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police to give prompt notice of the passage of this Article to all new regular salaried officers or employees, who shall be allowed 60 days from the time of their appointment to accept the provisions of this article or upon consent obtained from the Association within one year from such appointment.~~

§ 75-65 Termination of employment; reinstatement.

If for any cause whatsoever, any officer or employee of the Bureau of Police who has accepted the provisions of this article by the signing of the Pension Roll, shall cease to be an officer or employee of the Bureau or for any other reason shall not be entitled to a pension and/or a service increment under the provisions of this article, the total amount of the contribution paid into the Pension Fund by such officer or employee out of his salary shall be refunded to him, without interest. If any such member shall have returned to them the amount contributed, and shall afterward again become a member of the Police force, they shall not be entitled to the pension designated until 20 years after their reemployment, unless they shall return to the Pension Fund the amount withdrawn, in which event, the period of 20 years shall be computed from the time the member first became a member of the police force, excluding there from any period of time during which the member was not employed by the police force.

§ 75-66 Payment of contribution of deceased member.
[Amended 4-5-1978 by Ord. No. 12300]

In the event of the death of a member of the Police Pension Fund before the member becomes entitled to the pension and/or service increment herein provided, and such member is not survived by a spouse or family entitled to payments as hereinbefore provided, the total amount of contributions paid into the pension fund by the member shall be paid over to the police officer's estate.

§ 75-67 Payment of contribution of deceased pensioner.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

In the event of the death of a pensioner, before they shall have received as much as they contributed to the Police Pension Fund, the balance thereof remaining, without interest, shall be paid to their estate.

§ 75-68 Investment account; deposit with corporate trustee.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

- A. The Police Pension Fund Association is directed to create a Police Pension Fund Investment Account.
- B. Such Account shall be deposited with a corporate trustee who shall be selected or changed by action of the Association with notice to its members and with the advice and consent of Council.

§ 75-69 Authority to invest.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

The corporate trustee is hereby authorized to invest for the credit of the Police Pension Investment Account the surplus money accumulated in the Pension Fund in excess of such sum as may be fixed by the Association, together with such amounts as may be required for the payment of pensions and service increments as directed by this article during the year.

§ 75-70 Interest; sale of securities.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

The interest received from investments shall be paid into the Pension Fund upon receipt of same and if at any time sufficient funds are not available (inclusive of the monies appropriated by the City up to the amount it may be permitted to pay under the law) for the payment of all pensions and service increments in full, then corporate trustee may dispose of and sell such securities as it may hold in its Investment Account and use the proceeds thereof to supply the deficiency.

§ 75-71 Control limits of corporate trustee.
[Amended 4-26-1972 by Ord. No. 11932]

The corporate trustee shall be bound by this article, the order of the Association and the trust agreement governing the management of the fund.

§ 75-72 All charges borne by Fund.
[Amended 9-2-1987 by Ord. No. 12793]

All charges that may be assessed for all normal operations of this Pension Fund shall be borne by this Fund.

§ 75-73 Benefits exempt from garnishment nontransferable.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

All pensions and service increments granted under the provisions of this article and every portion thereof shall be exempt from attachment or garnishment processes and shall not be seized, taken or subject to detainer or be levied upon by virtue of an execution of any processes or proceedings whatsoever, issued out of or by any court in the commonwealth for the payment and satisfaction in whole or in part of any claim, damage, demand or judgment against any pensioner, and no pensioner shall have the right to transfer or assign his or her pension or any part thereof either by way of mortgage or otherwise.

§ 75-74 Repealer.
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]

Ordinance No. 1890 of the City, enacted March 9, 1926, as amended, and all other ordinances or parts thereof inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, except that the foregoing repeal shall not affect any act done, any liability, duty or obligation incurred, or any right accrued or any tenure acquired by virtue of the provisions of Ordinance No. 1890, as amended, for which purpose the ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

§ 75-75 Service increment ~~effective date.~~
[Amended 1-5-1971 by Ord. No. 11857]
