3. City of Allentown Climate Action Plan Survey

The City of Allentown wants to know the community's opinions on how to create a healthier, more resilient, equitable, and sustainable community. A citywide Allentown Sustainability Survey is now open for responses from those who live, work, or study in Allentown. The survey aims to gauge community knowledge and interest in sustainable practices to shape the development of a citywide Climate Action Plan. This anonymous survey, which will take under ten minutes to complete, is essential for gathering input on future environmental initiatives and climate action goals for the city
