Mayor's Original Proposal

Mayor's Original Proposal

- 8 appropriations with various unrelated activities
- City departments could move money to another project within the appropriation without City Council approval or community input
- City Council and Detroit residents would not be able to weigh in on the fund transfer until after the project had been put out for bid and the contract is submitted for approval

Mayor's Original Proposal

- Depending on the city contract process to spend over $400M is cumbersome and would burden the City Council's legislative review process
- Sometimes contracts come to the City Council after work has already been performed, eliminating the City Council's ability to weigh in on the services
- If the City Council and residents do not agree with the fund transfer, city resources would have already been spent on the contracting process and results in a waste of tax dollars

What were the 8
appropriations?
