Public office demands the highest respect of the public and consequently there is an incumbent duty upon all public officials and employees to fulfill that trust.

The operation of democratic government requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial and responsible to the people; that government decisions and policy be made in the proper channels of governmental structure; that public office not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government. In recognition of these goals, there is hereby established a Code of Ethics for all officials and employees whether elected or appointed, paid or unpaid, and a Board of Ethics to administer the Code and further its objectives. The purpose of this Code is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all such officials and employees of the City, its agencies and authorities, whether elected or appointed, by setting forth those acts or actions which are incompatible with the best interests of the City and by directing disclosure by officials and employees of private, financial or other interests in matters affecting the City. The provisions and purpose of this Code and such rules, regulations and opinions as may be promulgated by the Board pursuant hereto are hereby declared to be in the best interest of the City. (11821 9/1/70)

Words in the singular number shall include the plural number, and words in the plural number shall include the singular number. The masculine gender shall include the feminine, and the feminine gender shall include the masculine. Wherever the word "he" appears read "he or she". (13137 7/1/92)

171.02 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

No official or employee, whether paid or unpaid, shall engage in any business or transaction or shall have any financial or other private interest, direct or indirect, which is incompatible with the proper discharge of his official duties in the public interest or which would impair his independence of judgment or action in the performance of his official duties unless full disclosure is made in writing to the Board of Ethics. Such disclosure shall be a public record. (11821 9/1/70)

The following conflicts of interest are expressly prohibited whether or not disclosed:

A. Prohibited Use of Official Position:

An official or employee* may not use his or her official position or office, or take or fail to take any action, or influence others to take or fail to take any action, in a manner which he or she knows, or has reason to believe, may result in a personal* or financial benefit*, not shared with a substantial segment of the city's population, for any of the following persons or entities (no group of government employees may be considered "a substantial segment" for the purposes of this provision):

1. himself or herself;
2. a member of his or her household*, including a domestic partner* and his or her dependents, or the employer or business of any of these people;

5. a person or entity from whom the official or employee* has received an election campaign contribution of more than $200 in the aggregate during the past election cycle (this amount includes contributions from a person's immediate family or business as well as contributions from an entity's owners, directors, or officers, as well as contributions to the official or employee*'s party town committee or non-candidate political committee); or
6. a nongovernmental civic group, union, social, charitable, or religious organization of which he or she (or his or her spouse or domestic partner) is an officer or director.

b. The prohibition above applies equally to attempts to use, act, or influence.

B. Business or Professional Conflict

No official or employee shall participate in any decision-making process affecting himself or any entity in which such official or employee or associate of either of them is a director, official, or partner or in which such official or employee has a financial interest in excess of five (5%) percent, but such official or

2. The City official or employee shall completely and specifically describe and disclose his interest and its underlying basis, if any, in writing to his immediate superior and the chairperson of the Board of Ethics, in advance of his participation in the matter. (13137 7/1/92)

3. If either the City official or employee, or his immediate superior, or the chairperson of the Board of Ethics thinks that the disclosure reasonably raises a question whether the interest is minimal, the question shall be submitted to the Board of Ethics for an opinion, prior to which the official or employee shall not participate in the matter. (13137 7/1/92)

Failure to disclose properly, or abide by the opinion of the Board of Ethics, shall make any participation of the official or employee in the matter null and void and may also subject the official or employee to appropriate disciplinary action. (13137 7/1/92)

No City official or employee shall own in person or through an agent or broker, or be a principal in any corporation, partnership or other business entity which owns, any real property within the City of Allentown that is in violation of City or state laws or regulations. Property shall be deemed to be in violation when a reasonable and proper notice and order to correct violations duly issued has not been obeyed in a timely manner. (13137 7/1/92)

No City official or employee privy to non-public information regarding the allocation of City funds, or having direct influence or control over the allocation of City funds, shall be a director, official or trustee of any organization which receives from or through the City funds that constitute ten (10%) percent or more of the organization's annual operating and capital budget, except where appointment to such position is required by law and except where that interest is construed as being in the best interest of the City. (13137 7/1/92)

No City official or employee who serves the City without compensation shall represent any person before the agency he serves, or before any other City official or employee who regularly serves the agency he serves, or before any other agency on matters directly involving the agency he serves. (13137 7/1/92)

No former City official or employee shall at any time after he leaves the agency he served represent a person before any agency on a specific matter with which he was directly involved or of which he has special knowledge, if the representation would be adverse to the position of the City on the matter. (13137 7/1/92)

A. Use for Commercial Purposes

No official or employee shall permit their names or official titles to be used by a non-public enterprise in any manner which would lead reasonable observers to believe that those who deal with the enterprise may receive special treatment or advantages as a result of a formal association with the official or employee. (13137 7/1/92)

B. Use for Public Advantage

No official or employee shall use official letterhead or refer to their public position as a means of inducing or intimidating persons to resolve disputes more favorably, provide preferential treatment, or give free tickets, discounts, favors or other advantages. (13137 7/1/92)

a. Representation. For a period of two years after the termination of his or her city service or employment, an official or employee* may not, on behalf of any other person, for compensation, directly or indirectly, formally or informally, act as agent, attorney, lobbyist, or other sort of representative, to or before his or her former agency, department, authority, board, or commission. For the purposes of this provision, a mayor, managing director, council member or council aide is deemed to have worked for every city department, agency, authority, board, and commission. Acting indirectly includes action by a partner, associate, and other professional employee of an entity in which the former official or employee is a partner, associate, or professional employee, as well as acting by a member of the former official or employee's immediate family.

b. Particular Matters. With respect to particular matters on which the official or employee personally and substantially worked while in city service or employment, the foregoing prohibition is permanent.

c. Area of Responsibility. With respect to matters for which the official or employee had official responsibility, but were not personally and substantially involved, the foregoing prohibition is for a period of two years after termination of city service or employment.

171.05 INTERVENING ON BEHALF OF CONSTITUENTS AND FRIENDS

Public officials shall be cautious about directly or indirectly intervening with normal decision making, investigatory or adjudicative processes of governmental bodies on behalf of constituents or friends because such intervention can threaten the ability of government administrators to exercise independent objective judgment on the merits. (13137 7/1/92)

A. General Rule

Intervention on behalf of constituents or friends is proper only if it is strictly limited to assuring fairness and equity of treatment of the procedures and the intervener consciously avoids seeking to unduly influence the decision-making process. Those who intervene should firmly, explicitly and unambiguously convey their limited purposes to reduce the possibility of direct or indirect pressure on administrators which could reasonably appear to influence the substantive decision. (13137 7/1/92)

B. Sharing of Compensation

No person rendering professional services to the City shall, in any form or guise, share or agree to share the compensation received by him for such services with any City employee. Nor shall any City employee share or agree to share in the compensation received from the City by any other person for rendering professional services to the City. (12180 4/7/76)

A "person" for purposes of this section shall be a natural person, partnership, or a corporation. (12180 4/7/76)

partners in the partnership; nor shall the other general partners in the partnership be prohibited from sharing in any such compensation. (12180 4/7/76; (12180 4/7/76; 13137 7/1/92; 13742 §1 3/18/99)

(11821 9/1/70; 14999 6/20/12)

I. The person making the allegations and the employee or official involved shall have the opportunity to appear at the hearing by himself or by counsel and to present any and all evidence including testimony and exhibits which are relevant to the issue involved. No testimony shall be excluded except for irrelevancy. (11821 9/1/70)

J. All hearings before the Board involving an alleged conflict of interest of an employee or official shall be held in executive session; provided, however, that a public hearing may be held where such official or employee alleged to have conflict of interest consents thereto. (11821 9/1/70)

All opinions rendered by the Board shall be in such form and with such deletions as would prevent the disclosure of the identity of the official or employee involved. (11821 9/1/70 § 14999 6/20/12)

L. If the request for an opinion involves an employee or official and the request is made by a person other than such employee or official, then after an opinion has been reached, the Board shall in the case of an appointed official or employee notify the Mayor and the appointing authority of the official or employee involved of its decision. The appointing authority shall take whatever action is deemed necessary and shall report the action to the Board within fifteen (15) days after receiving the decision of the Board. If it is the majority decision of the Board that the action taken is not satisfactory then the Board shall so notify the Mayor and all members of Council. In the case of an elected official, the Board shall notify the Mayor and all members of Council. A copy of the written opinion with identifying names deleted shall be filed with the City Clerk.
