The Morning Call Ad 6753668

Mr. Daryl Hendricks asked if there were any comments form the public or his colleagues. He asked Ms. Mota if she wanted to say anything.

Ms. Cynthia Mota stated that she lives on Barnes Lanes and it brought back memories of when they were in front of the Planning Commission. It is sad to say they could not do anything. At the same time, she can say that what she does like about it is that it would be affordable housing. People can afford those homes. She dislikes when people think about middle income, right away she knows what they were thinking. She thinks that it was really unfair, the comments. She really would like to see that in writing. If they are going to build something they make sure that people will be able to afford it. The working class is really what she wants to see. Again, she is going through it with Barnes Lane and this is where she lives. It is difficult when people impose things on you without you having a say. She knows they are lacking homes and it is really difficult to find affordable homes here in the city. She stated that she thinks that she will vote yes.

Mr. Daryl Hendricks asked if there were any other comments.

Mr. Michael Hanlon stated no, you have them all.

Yes: 2 - Cynthia Mota, and Julio Guridy
