Nomination Statement

Crystal Perez has been working for the Allentown School District for 6 years and in her current role as Assistant Director of Health Services for nearly 3 years. She has shown herself to be extremely knowledgeable in health issues effecting the ASD students and is an advocate for health issues concerning the youth of the City of Allentown. Crystal has been a reliable and dependable partner for the City of Allentown and the Health Bureau since serving in her position and would be an excellent addition to the City's Board of Health.
