- Summary and facts of the bill.

The City is undertaking a Public Improvements Project in accordance with ANIZDA guidelines for the Center Square at 7th and Hamilton St including roadway improvements to 7th St, a State Highway. The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) is willing to provide discretionary funding as a reimbursable grant toward the roadway improvements of the project. PennDOT is looking for the City to serve as the local sponsor for the project and enter into a reimbursement agreement. This resolution will confirm the City will act as the local sponsor and authorize the Administration to enter into any necessary agreements to establish the reimbursement agreement. $2,500,000.00 of discretionary funding is being considered no matching funds are required.

The scope of the roadway improvements includes reconfiguration of the intersection of Hamilton and 7th St, improvements at 7th St and Linden St, new traffic signals, pavement, and pavement markings.

- Purpose – Please include the following in your explanation:
